este libro presenta los resultados del análisis de los datos recogidos en el módulo de encuesta realizado por el cis con el título biografías de emancipación generaciones y cambio social en españa este módulo se diseñó para recoger información retrospectiva con el objetivo de estudiar las trayectorias vitales en la juventud a partir de las generaciones de hombres y de mujeres de 18 y más años de edad poniendo un especial interés en el proceso de emancipación todo ello en un contexto de limitados datos generacionales sobre la juventud y sobre sus procesos de emancipación la emancipación ha sido considerada en este estudio como una suma de procesos que implican distintas dimensiones entre las que la salida o salidas del hogar parental son un evento más dentro de una trayectoria compleja los resultados obtenidos confirman evidencias empíricas encontradas en otros estudios y dan cuenta de aspectos también novedosos el estudio cubre además un amplio rango de generaciones muy diferentes entre sí que han protagonizado cambios sociales profundos en sus trayectorias hacia la vida adulta ello nos sitúa en un contexto novedoso desde el que retomar el debate sobre la emancipación en españa cabe destacar que los cambios más importantes se concentran entre las generaciones nacidas hasta 1959 y las nacidas después las transiciones juveniles de las generaciones más recientes muestran una clara tendencia hacia una mayor complejización con una mayor presencia de recorridos no lineales y reversibles al mismo tiempo hemos encontrado evidencias de que las trayectorias de las generaciones más mayores no eran tan lineales como estudios precedentes han sugerido este trabajo también aporta evidencias sólidas de que son las mujeres las que han protagonizado los cambios más notables entre ellas los cambios sucedidos entre las generaciones de más edad y las más jóvenes son de mucho mayor calado que entre los hombres this is a pithy assessment of where adult education now stands the traditions out of which it came its current problems and possible futures the authors are particularly concerned with how its longstanding commitment to deliver social change ran into difficulties in the less favourable circumstances of the 1980s and 1990s they argue that its purposes now need to be reconceptualized in order for it to become once again a relevant and effective agent of change the authors remind adult educationists of their traditional commitment to social action by surveying the ideas of seminal adult education thinkers as they developed historically in europe north america and later the third world they show how today s very different context has eroded that original vision and purpose the book concludes by identifying four possible future scenarios the challenges confronting an adult education still committed to social change and the key features which they believe can contribute to learning our way out of the current impasse
